Hammarskjold Build Model Lighthouses

Canadian Lighthouses of Lake Superior Inc. (CLLS) in partnership with Hammarskjold High School unveiled a community project that will be displayed in the city in the very near future. The project focused on the creation of two twelve-foot models of Shaganash #10 Lighthouse, CLLS's signature lighthouse.

Keander Smith a Grade 12 Student of Mr. Louis Kok's Woodworking class said

"Being involved in the Lighthouse Project has given our class a task where we get to get to build a structure that will be visible in our community," says Keander Smith. "It has been very challenging, but rewarding."

"On behalf of Canadian Lighthouses of Lake Superior, we'd like to thank Mr. Kok and his students for their dedication and attention to detail that is evident on these two lighthouse models," says George Armstrong, CLLS Board Member. "Lighthouses have played a significant role in Thunder Bay's history. The work of the students will help CLLS raise public awareness of our mission to preserve, protect and promote lighthouses of Lake Superior."

The location for the final display is still being determined and an announcement will be made May 4th at the lighthouse Fundraising Dinner at the Prince Arthur Hotel.

A.R.E You Ready?

On Tuesday, April 17, students at Westmount Public School had the opportunity to learn what it is like to live with autism through a presentation by A.R.E. - Autism Reality Experience. Some individuals were also be able to experience what autism can be like through virtual reality.

"This is a very unique experience for our students to get a better understanding of the disorder," says Lisa Dampier, Westmount Public School Global Citizen Academy Teacher. "We believe that this was an experience that will change our students' perceptions of autism."

People living with autism experience sensory processing difficulties which can have a profound impact on their ability to manage day to day living. During the virtual reality experience, participants will experience sensory overload through the use of specialized equipment and a simulated environment. Participants will be required to perform basic tasks as they manage the effects of sensory overload. Their actions and behaviors will be monitored and analyzed by specially trained facilitators. Through a feedback session, the participants will gain valuable insight that will help them understand what people with autism face.

Xanadu Tickets on Sale Now!

You better get your tickets now for the upcoming production of Xanadu because they are going to go fast!

The musical is produced by Southside Performing Arts, a theater group comprised of Sir Winston Churchill Collegiate and Vocational Institute and Westgate Collegiate and Vocational Institute students and staff.

"Slap on your roller skates, pump up the glitter, and get hip to the muses in Xanadu, the laugh-out-loud musical stage adaptation of the 1980 film. Xanadu follows Clio, the lovely and precocious Greek muse who decides to put on some rollerskates, legwarmers, and an Australian accent in order to help Sonny Malone, a chalk artist with a heart of gold to rediscover his own creativity. With both help and hindrance from the other muses -- and from a clarinetist-turned-real estate mogul named Danny Maguire -- Sonny and Clio work to rebuild their "apex of the arts": a roller disco. Xanadu is the rare musical with a big heart, an even bigger funny bone, and a tongue stuck firmly in its cheek."
