We invite all students who are ready to explore the complex dynamics in families, family development as well as the challenges we face to grow, learn, and succeed in the world today – after-school, two days each week from 3:40 p.m. - 5:10* p.m (September - June). All students are welcome.

* Session 1 finishing time will be extended to 5:16 to cover time lost due to Monday holidays.

Viking Family Studies will be offered based on student enrolment. A lottery approach for the limited available seats will be utilized to ensure fairness. A wait list will be created if seats are oversubscribed.

Students who are successful in the Viking Family Studies after-school program will earn a Grade 9 Social Science & Humanities credit.

What kinds of things will I learn in Viking Family Studies?

You will use research and inquiry skills to learn about adolescent development, family lifestyles, and relating to other people. You will develop skills to help you get along with others, make wise choices, and be a responsible member of your community. You will also learn some useful, every day skills like how to cook, sew, eat healthy, and spend money wisely.

Do I need to know how to cook?

No, that's what you'll learn!

Will this course prepare me for high school?

Yes it will! This Family Studies course will build your background to take the Grade 10 Foods and Nutrition course (HFN201) or any other Family Studies course in high school.

Is this a high school course?

You bet! You will earn your first high school credit, which will open up more choices for you in the years to come.

How do I sign up?

Complete this registration information, submit on or before Wednesday, September 6, 2018 - Enrolment is limited, applications will be accepted immediately.
