

1. Canada's Human Trafficking Hotline @ 1-833-900-1010 or visit Canadian Human Trafficking Hotline
2. Speak Out: Stop Sex Trafficking – Ending Trafficking Through Indigenous Women's, Girls' and Two-Spirit Leadership (endindigenoustrafficking.com)

An educational campaign focused on raising awareness about sexual exploitation among Indigenous women and youth. Indigenous partners who work to end Indigenous human trafficking and support Indigenous human trafficking survivors contributed to the development of this campaign. Partners involved in this project include:

- Ganohkwasra Family Assault Support Services
 - Independent First Nations
 - Ontario Federation of Indigenous Friendship Centres
 - Ontario Native Women's Association
 - Ontario's Human Trafficking Lived Experience Roundtable
 - And others
3. Ontario Native Women's Association (ONWA)
Indigenous Anti-Human Trafficking | ONWA or 1-800-667-0816
 4. Thunder Bay Coalition to End Human Trafficking
Home - Thunder Bay Coalition to End Human Trafficking (humantraffickingthunderbay.ca)
 5. For dedicated services in supports across Ontario that help victims, survivors and persons at risk of human trafficking, visit: Anti-human trafficking services and supports | ontario.ca
 6. Canadian Centre for Child Protection Agency Home – protectchildren.ca
 7. Created in the name of gender equity, Aura Freedom is a grassroots women's organization that works to eradicate violence against women and human trafficking through advocacy and education.
HUMAN TRAFFICKING - Aura Freedom International