Dear Parents/Guardians:

The Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC) has representatives from various local support associations/agencies, parents/guardians/caregivers and community members who advocate for students with special education needs. If you would like assistance or information, please call one of the contact people listed below. We can connect you with people familiar with the processes.

LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS/ORGANIZATIONS	NOMINATION REPRESENTATIVE	PHONE
Community Representative	Alina Cameron	623-2287 (w)
Dilico Anishinabek Family Care	Sarah Niles	626-5260 (c)
Easter Seals	Tara Ingram	474-6268 (h)
Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Information Network	Miranda Myers	473-7523 (h)

ADVOCATES ARE AVAILABLE TO ALL PARENTS

Advocates can help parents/guardians/students to help themselves by:

- supporting parents/guardians/students;
- analyzing and helping to resolve problems;
- informing parents/guardians/students of their rights;
- confidence building;
- following up on concerns;
- referring to appropriate agencies; and
- accompanying parents/guardians/caregivers to meetings.
