

THE ROLE OF SEAC COMMUNITY REPRESENTATIVE

The SEAC community representative (alternative representative) position provides an opportunity for parents/guardians/caregivers of students with special education needs and members of the community interested in special education to provide input to Lakehead District School Board (LDSB) about its special education programs and services. Community representatives are expected to provide the perspective of families whose children have special education needs and attend LDSB schools in the area of Thunder Bay. Most successful applicants have been active on School Councils or may connect with local community groups of diverse cultural backgrounds.

Community representatives attend all SEAC meetings as voting members. Community alternates are encouraged to attend meetings but may only participate as voting members when covering for an absent representative. Information about the SEAC meeting schedule and location can be found on our Board website under committees.

Membership Selection

At Lakehead Public Schools, up to two community representatives and matching alternates may be appointed by the Board. In accordance with Regulation 464/97 under the Education Act, which covers the work and function of SEAC, the Board may appoint as community representatives, applicants who are not representatives of a local association/agency, and not members of the Trustees of the Board.

Nominees must:

- be Canadian citizens aged 18 or older;
- be public school electors residing within the jurisdiction of Lakehead District School Board; and
- not be employed by the Lakehead District School Board in any capacity.

In addition to these requirements, the Board takes the following factors into consideration when appointing SEAC community representatives and alternates:

- reflecting diversity;
- a global perspective;
- a genuine interest in special needs students and special education programming;
- the ability to participate as a team player;
- good communication skills; and
- a varied background which is likely to compliment the knowledge and skill set of the SEAC Associations represented.
